Press-Scimitar Editor Stresses Thinking In Career Day Speech

"Stand tall, smile tall, think tall," was the theme of a very impressive speech made by Nell Adams, City Editor of the Press-Scimitar, to the Tech High Student body recently. The occasion was Career Day and Mr. Adams spoke on the opportunities in America, no matter what your chosen vocation might be. He advised talking to some successful person in the field one was interested in to learn the obstacles and pitfalls in the way.

INTRODUCING THE SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS OF 1951-'52

JOHNNY MARTIN LEADS CENTRAL VICTORY SPUNKY YELLOWJACKETS LOSE, 13-0

For the second time in as many years, the Tech High Yellowjackets had their stingers removed by the Central Warriors. Central, it will be remembered, defeated the Jackets by a score of 20 to 0 last year, and then came back to win again this year 13-0. This was the first time in 18 years that the Warriors have beaten Tech twice in succession. Tech beat Central three times in a row 1947, 1948, 1949.

Throughout the first half the 10,859 excited spectators witnessed some of the tightest football of the year. First the Jackets then the Warriors got possession of the ball, but neither was able to do anything with it, due to the excellent front wall of both teams.

Then with the start of the third quarter the story began to change. The Warriors' Bill Lockett had punted to Jim Ballard on the Central 6. Ballard returned it to the 16, but Guard Bobby McVay was caught clipping on the 10, and Tech was set back to the 1. Tom Neely kicked from the end zone to Bobby Parker on the Tech 31, who returned it to the 26. Left half Johnny Martin went the distance on the next play. The try for extra point was blocked, but it was apparent that Central had taken possession of the ball game.

Martin Does It Again

Johnny Martin, just as the third quarter ended, intercepted a Tech pass which he returned to the Tech 35. From there Martin and Smoky Russell advanced in 7 plays to the 2. Martin sliced over left guard for the touchdown. Walter Strelli kicked twice for the extra point, the first being cancelled by an offside's penalty.

Ralph Bennett played a superb game as a linebacker and linemen Gentry, Banakas, Howe, and Skourteris, made a good showing for themselves. Tech was hit hard in the second quarter by the loss of blocking back Jack Carter, who was shaken up blocking for a Neely punt. Though he was unable to finish the game, he suffered no serious injury.

South Side Defeats Tech Thronberry Is Star

South Side's Marvin Thronberry and his bewitching modern dance steps succeeded in running over Tech High's Yellowjackets by a score of 26-6 last Friday night in a prep grid game.

Tech fought hard, and although the most spectacular touchdown was made by Tech's right tackle, Ed Bowlin, they were just no match for the powerful Scrappers, led by dancing Marvin Thronberry and the injured but still fighting Ralph Robinson.

Parker Does His Part

Thronberry's first touchdown was for 50 yards on the game's third play. He scored again from the 16 before the quarter ended, and his third touchdown came in the last quarter, after Red Parker made the third period touchdown.

Tech's lone marker came in the second quarter, right after Thronberry made his second one. Jan Craig started off left tackle and fumbled on the Tech 20. Tackle Ed Bowlin picked the ball up and went 80 yards for the touchdown.

The Scrappers made a relentless 76 yard drive in 11 plays for their last touchdown. Thronberry did a few jitterbug steps from 27 yards out and danced right past the Tech line for the touchdown, making the score 26-6.

Aerial Attack Lags

Tech's usually effective aerial attack was not working so well Friday night, as they completed only one pass, and that one for only one yard, in eight tries.

Neither team had an excessive number of penalties, Tech lost only 30 yards while South Side lost just 5 yards.

Tech Beats East, 13-6 Craig and Soule Star

An inspired East High team was handed its ninth defeat on November 3, by the Tech High Yellowjackets. Though the Mustangs outrushed and outpassed the Jackets all through the game, the Techmen had the power where it was needed most, and managed to edge by the fighting Mustangs, 13-6.

East pushed 60 yards late in the second quarter to make the first touchdown of the game. Tech spoiled the try for point.

The doughty Jackets began to make up for lost time as Jan Craig took the kickoff, fumbled it, then picked it up and reeled 75 yards through the entire East team to tie the score. Ballard made the conversion and put Tech ahead to stay.

Soule Scores on Reverse

Midway in the third quarter, Hiram Soule was handed the ball on a reverse and went 68 yards through Mustang held territory to score. Ballard missed the try for point.

East threatened only once more, in the fading minutes of the game, pushing to the Tech 12 yard line behind the running of Yancey and Stringer, but there the Jackets front wall halted the drive. Tech took over

Rifle Team Organized Loses First Match

The first week of R.O.T.C. inter-city matches is under way. Tech fired its first match against Treadwell in the Treadwell armory. Five members of Tech's team of fifteen men fired against Treadwell and dropped some 90 points. Each man has a possible score of 200 points. The whole team has a possible score of 1000. Each has five shots in four positions with 1 minute per shot. The four positions are prone, sitting, kneeling, and standing.

Other matches are: Tech vs. Messick, at Messick Armory. Tech vs. South Side, at South Side Armory. Tech vs. Humes, at Humes Armory. Tech vs. East, at East Armory. Central vs. Tech at Humes armory.

and three plays later when the final whistle blew the scoreboard read—Tech 13, East 6.

Tech Tromps Tigers As The Season Ends Soule Scores Twice

The Tech High Yellowjackets took undisputed possession of third place, Friday, November 18, by overruling Humes High, 34-0.

Fumbles checked both teams in the first quarter, but midway in the second quarter the Jackets began to rack up touchdowns. Bobby Lyle's fumble was recovered by Tech's Bobby McVay on the Tech 45. Tech, powered by Ralph Bennett, pushed to the eight, where DeWayne Phillipy took over and did the honors on an end sweep.

Banakas Blocks Punt

Less than five minutes later, Leon Banakas got in front of Bobby Bennett's kick and the Yellowjacket squad took over on the 18. Again Bennett, along with Craig pushed toward the "Promised Land". Bennett balled over from the one.

Late in the third quarter, Jan Craig got one for himself from 11 yards out. Lyles and Halcock hit him on the five, but he just carried them over with him.

one. Craig went to the seven and then Soule sailed over on the reverse. The last touchdown was set up by center Babba Howe's pass interception. Soule went 32 yards on the same play for this one.

Saturday, Coach Roger Coggin rewarded his boys with a trip to Oxford, Mississippi to see his old team, Tennessee, play Ole Miss.

SPORTSCOPE

By George Daniels

It looks as though either Southside, or Central each with six wins and no losses, will be the prep league champions. All the suspense will be cleared up on Thanksgiving when the two teams meet.

Tech High on the other hand, is now out of the running for the championship. The recent 26-6 defeat by the Scrappers killed all hope that they might have had of finishing first. The Yellowjackets have plenty of manpower, though. Back Ralph Bennett is one of the gamest men in the city. DeWayne Phillipy and Jan Craig show plenty of promise for future greatness.

In the line the Jackets have Gene Gentry and Leon Banakas, two veritable stone walls. Jimmy Ballard at end has starred all season, and Jerry McAdams, Junior, looks as though he might be one of the best next year.

As for the "Blind Benefit" game, if nothing drastic happens Southside and Central will probably be lined up against each other. Though Tech is now out of the running for the prep championship, the Yellowjackets are still fighting, and are almost sure to place among the top four teams.

When the curtains part, he is in a stew over a lost collar button. His best man does nothing what-so-ever to help him except to tell him things to confuse and worry him. The best man then loses the ring. It's one glamorous mess and everyone is sure to enjoy it.

As yet, the cast has not been announced as it is not complete. The student director is Thelma Utley and stage manager, Bunny McVeigh.

Loew's State Theatre Presents "Quo Vadis" Week of Nov. 21st

The novel "Quo Vadis" has been dramatized on the stages of various countries. It has been the inspiration of at least two operas. In 1920 the old Pathé Company produced a twenty-minute film version in Paris, and in 1919 the Cine Company of Italy

The story has in it the stuff of immortality. In filming it as the most lavish of all productions in the annals of the Screen, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer feels that it has been privileged to add something permanent to the cultural treasure-house of civilization.

The dream has come true. —Adv.

Jr. or Outing Held at Shelby Forest Many Attend

The jovial juniors held their first party of the year at Shelby Forest, November 2. Although the outing was sponsored by the junior class, tickets were sold to everyone and many sophomores and seniors attended.

Watch out Tech High girls, these Central gals are beatin' your time. Seen dancing were Orville Williams 'n' Carol Hartfield, Bobby Sullivan 'n' Shirley Daniels, De Wayne Phillips 'n' Dot Wilson, Walter Hardin 'n' Janet Cochran. (All these girls are from Central, see what I mean?)

Standing by the fire, trying to get warm were Hershel Lyle 'n' Charlotte White, Billy Joe Richards 'n' Shirrie Russell, Frances Riley 'n' Wayne House, and Betty Jo Frost 'n' John Earl Grisham. E njoying fried chicken, prepared by very capable cooks, were Mary Alice Nethery 'n' Bobby Newman, Jimmy Stewart 'n' Dale Roberts, and Margie Brown 'n' Eileen Densford. Although they didn't have dates, Lee Grisham, Jerre McAdams and Buzzy Ford seemed to be having fun.

"The junior class would like to thank Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Drane, Miss Margaret Gavin and Mr. and Mrs. Maury Wade who gave their time so freely to help make the outing a success," says Class President DeWayne Phillipy.
